

MANUFACTURER'S WARRANTY

All ziQ Ltd. manufactured products are warranted for five years against defects in materials and workmanship. ziQ Ltd. will repair or replace any product covered by this warranty. Products distributed by ziQ, but manufactured by other manufacturers are subject to the warranty stipulated by their manufacturer.

ziQ Ltd. will make every reasonable effort to assist the buyer in addressing any issues related to the use or performance of its product. ziQ Ltd. will immediately replace any product, which it determines cannot be satisfactorily repaired in the field. The buyer will be invoiced for replacement product, including shipping charges, pending examination of the returned product by ziQ Ltd. If said returned product is found to be defective under terms of this warranty, a credit equal to the amount charged for the replacement product will be issued to the buyer.

Under no circumstances will ziQ Ltd. accept return of any product or claim related thereto without its prior approval.

This warranty is not transferable. The original purchaser of the product must make warranty claims directly to ziQ Ltd.
